

Come to the 11th Annual State Youth Court Conference

in Layton, Utah, June 11-14, 2008

and you can...

Celebrate the amazing work being done...

Connect with your peers in other communities across the state...

Inspire others with your own success stories...

Build on individual leadership skills...

Learn new ways to take action in your community every day...

Participate in a local service project that will benefit our host city...

Youth Courts are REAL Courts

You will impact the life of the youth who come before you!

The Conference Experience

Today, more than ever, there are no limits to what youth can achieve, especially when they are equipped with the right tools, the right plan, the right support and the right attitude. The State Youth Court Conference purpose is to provide activities, and break-out sessions that will help the individual volunteer build leadership skills that can be used inside and outside of the courtroom..

Youth court volunteers are an example to their peers every day. They can change the actions of others simply by their own actions, their words and what they are willing to stand up for. The conference will also help participants to identify issues in their community, whether that community be at school, home, youth court, in their neighborhood, or in the community at large, and learn ways they can make positive changes that will address the issues they have identified.

Conference Highlights:

We have the honor of bringing in the fantastic magical speaker Brad Barton

Banquet with a keynote speaker to be announce at a later date.

Followed by a dance with an awesome DJ

Other break out learning sessions to be announce later.

It will be loads of fun so plan on attending this great opportunity to meet other youth court members from around the state, share ideas, brain storm, and have lots of fun.